Hey I caught up internally here and it sounds like there's 0% chance we could ever invest given all the insane threats Charles Johnson has made to team members here

I don't want to waste your time

Ok. He's not even a shareholder in Clearview anymore and never had a role at the company. I think your team should know that

He has threatened our team members and myself here too wasn't he one of the founders?

What happened to his shares?

No he is not a founder. His shares have been repurchased as the company has bylaw that allows us to do that for a variety of reasons, including violation of confidentiality agreements.

If you want to know more about the story, let me know. I think it could provide the right info and context. I will still be available at that time
